

KEY SPORTING CONTRIBUTIONS (SPORT LEADERS)

Late Dr Tan Eng Liang (陈英梁博士)

Dr Tan was a former Team Singapore water polo player and veteran sports official, who represented Singapore in various Major Games, including the Melbourne Olympics 1956. Some of his key achievements as an athlete include one bronze (1962) and two silver (1958, 1966) medals at the Asian Games and two South-east Asian Peninsular (SEAP) Games golds (1965, 1967).

Key Sporting Contributions

- Chef-de-mission for Team Singapore at 12 Major Games, including two Olympics, two Commonwealth Games, two Asian Games, and six SEA Games
- Singapore Sports Council - Chairman (1975 - 1991)
- SNOC - Vice-President (1992 - 2020)
- Honorary fifth-dan black belt holder (awarded to individuals in recognition of their outstanding contribution to the promotion of taekwondo in Singapore)
- Elected Member of Parliament for River Valley (1972 - 1980)
- Senior Minister of State for National Development (1975 - 1978)
- Senior Minister of State for Finance (1978 - 1979)
- Founding Chairman of the Urban Redevelopment Authority (URA)
- Awarded the Public Service Star (1971), Public Service Star (Bar) (1985) and Meritorious Service Medal (1991)
- Spearheaded the Singapore Olympic Foundation-Tan Family Water Polo Fund launched in 2021 to develop young athletes and groom elite players; Dr Tan and his family donated $500,000 to kickstart the fund.

Mr Ng Ser Miang (黄思绵)

Mr Ng Ser Miang is a former Team Singapore sailor who was a member of the team who won Singapore's first sailing SEAP medal at the 1969 SEAP Games. After he retired as an athlete from his sport, he went on to contribute further in Singapore's sporting scene through numerous roles.

Key Sporting Contributions

- International Olympics Council (IOC) - Member (1998-Present), Vice-President (2009-2013, 2020-Present)
- SNOC - EXCO Member (2014-Present), Vice President (1990-2014)
- Singapore Olympic Foundation - Chairman (2010-Present)
- Singapore 2010 Youth Olympic Games - Organising Committee Chairman
- 117th IOC Session in 2005 - Chairman of the Singapore Organising Committee
- 1st Asian Youth Games in 2009 - Chairman of Steering Committee
- GAISF General Assembly 2001 in Singapore - Chairman of Organising Committee
- Singapore Sports Council - Chairman (1991 – 2002)
- Nominated Member of Parliament (2002 – 2005)
- Distinguished Service Award by the U.S. Sports Academy (2011)
- Awarded the Public Service Star (1999), Meritorious Service Medal (2010)

Mrs Jessie Phua (潘黄惠珍)

Jessie is the first Singaporean to head an International Sport Federation and first woman elected to head the International Bowling Federation. She served as the President of the Singapore Bowling Federation for almost 20 years, and played a key role in developing bowling as a sport in Singapore. During her tenure as President, Singapore's bowling team saw six world champions (Remy Ong, Cherie Tan, Shayna Ng, Jasmine Yeong-Nathan, Joey Yeo and Jennifer Tan) who won numerous World Championships, Asian Championships, Asian Games and SEA Games medals.

Key Sporting Contributions

- SNOC - Member (2004-Present), Acting President (2023-Jan 2024)
- Board of Directors, Singapore Olympic Foundation
- Fédération Internationale des Quilleurs (now named International Bowling Federation) - President (2007-2011)
- Singapore Bowling Federation - President (2002 - 2021)
- Chef-de-Mission at London Olympics (2012) and Asian Games (2014)
- Nominated Member of Parliament (2007 - 2009)
- Awarded the Public Service Medal (2012)

Dr Teo-Koh Sock Miang (张许淑敏博士)

Dr Teo-Koh has been actively involved in the disability sport scene for decades, and currently sits on several boards, including the Singapore Disability Sports Council and Singapore Sports School. The veteran sports administrator has a PhD in human performance (specialising in exercise physiology and growth & development) and disability sports, and has disability sport coaching experiences include para athletics and para swimming coaching.

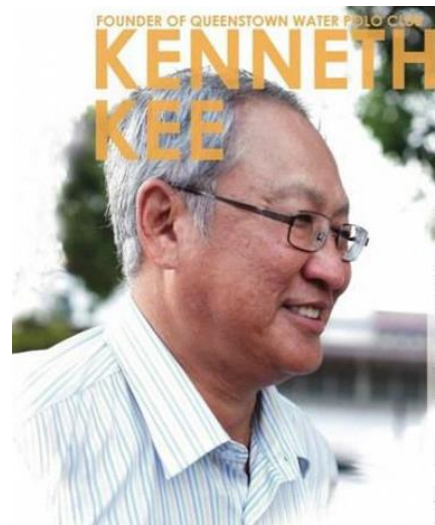

Key Sporting Contributions

- Singapore National Paralympic Council - President (2013-2015, 2022-2026)
- Singapore Disability Sports Council - Vice President (2016-2020), President (2014-2016, 2020-2026)
- Special Olympics Singapore - President (2000-2008, 2010-2019, 2021-2023)
- Singapore Olympic Academy - Principal (2016-Present)
- Singapore Sports School - Board of Director (2018-Present)
- Awarded Public Service Star, BBM (2013) & Public Service Award, PBM (2008)
- International Paralympic Committee (IPC) Paralympic Order Selection Committee - Member (2021-Present)
- Asian Paralympic Committee - Member of Games & Sports Development Committee (2021-Present)
- ASEAN Para Sports Federation Board of Governors - Governor (2013-2015, 2020-Present)
- MCCY Disability Sport Masterplan Steering Committee (2014-2016)
- MCCY Inter-Agency Committee on Disability Sports (2014 -2017)
- 2015 ASEAN Para Games Steering Committee (2013-2015)
- Sport Singapore Vision 2030 Steering Committee (2011-2014)
- Singapore Sports Council - Board Member (2010 -2017)
- Vision 2030 Fund (Sport SG) - Board of Trustees (2012 - 2017)
- SNOC - Member (2007 - 2010)
- Singapore Hockey Federation - Vice-President (2006-2010)
- Singapore Sports Council - Women & Sport Committee Co-Chair (2004-2008)
- MCYS Sports for All Committee, Committee on Sporting Singapore (2001-2002)

Mr Kenneth Kee (纪山狮)

Mr Kenneth Kee built up a team that rose to become amongst the best in Asia from a group of neighbourhood players, who eventually participated in SEA Games 1979 and 1981, as well as Asian Games 1982. He was also the national team coach from 1979 to 1982.

A former Team Singapore water polo player, Mr Kenneth Kee first started off with swimming, before representing Singapore in water polo in six SEA Games between 1967 to 1977, winning gold each time. He also represented Singapore at the Asian Games in 1974 and 1978 where the team won a Bronze medal. He was also the national water polo team captain between 1975 to 1978, and during this period, the team won Team of the Year twice at the Singapore Sports Awards, in 1976 and 1978. Mr Kee went on to coach the national team between 1979 to 1982, and the water polo team subsequently also won the Team of the Year award multiple times in 1980, 1987, 1992, 1994, 1996, 2006 and 2014.

Key Sporting Contributions

- National Water Polo Team Coach (1979 - 1982)
- Singapore Sports Awards - Coach of the Year (1982)
- Singapore Swimming Association Water Polo Advisory Committee (2017-2018)
- As a tribute to his contributions, a water polo competition, the Kenneth Kee Cup, is organised in his name
- Awarded Public Administration Medal – Silver (2004) in recognition of his work in MHA