

SINGAPORE SPORTS CONFERENCE
Saturday, 8 March 2008 & Sunday 9 March 2008
Republic Polytechnic

DIALOGUE SESSIONS

8 March 2008, Saturday

Life After Sports, What Is Next?

It is often said that athlete faces all kind of difficulties to get a job and establish a niche area. Is that true? Hear from a group of former national athletes who performed well in recent major games. Hear what they have to say as they challenge that notion, being life examples themselves.

Presenters: Former National Athletes Gary Tan, Mark Chay, Gerald Koh, & Lee Wen Si

Sports Idols 2007/2008

Come and be inspired by our sports idols as you hear them share about their interesting experiences as an athlete, student and idol, how this unique experience shapes and moulds them into becoming who they are now.

Presenters: Singapore Sports Idols 2007

9 March 2008. Sunday

Volunteering in Sports, What's In It For You?

Have you wondered how you can volunteer in sports? What do sports' volunteers do? Come and hear our volunteers share about why and what they do as a volunteer in sports, how this experience benefits them and how volunteering in sports is different from other forms of volunteering. If you are interested, feel free to ask how you can be a volunteer.

Presenters: Team Singapore Volunteers and Young Team Singapore Ambassadors

Behind the Scenes of Paralympics Sports

What is behind Theresa Goh's many successes you heard about in the newspapers? Yes, our Paralympics sports is up and coming. Hear all about the hard work that went behind the scene to raise the profile of Paralympics.

Presenters:

- 1) Dr Ow Chee Chung, (Executive Director, Society for the Physically Disabled)
- 2) Kelvin Wong, (Executive Director, Singapore Disability Sports Council)
- 3) Elton Seah, (Student, Maris Stella High School)
- 4) Zaimoonisah B M Mohd Yusoff, (Coach-Athletics, four-time winner of the 'Sportswoman of the Year' award)